Pay Tribute to a Dead Comrade and Friend.

April 22, the intelligence of death of Mont White, who has lived while en route for the war, and a meeting of young men of Columbia at once called and held in the house to pay tribute to his memory.

He following resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS, As our benevolent comrade has taken from the walk a life one of our noble, brave and worthy young men, Mont White, the bloom of young manhood, with bright prospects and laudable ambition; and

WHEREAS, He being the only son of fond and loving parents, we deem it our duty and esteem it a great privilege, to express our sympathy in this sad bereavement.

Resolved, That in this death we have lost a true friend, the community a worthy citizen, the family a devoted child and the country one of her loyal sons.

2d. That the young men in this town attend the burial, in a body as a special tribute of respect to our deceased companion whose death we sorely regret.

3d. That we admire his courage in response to a call of his country to fight her battles in a foreign land, and in whose memory his stout and manly form encumbered to disease that cost him his precious life.

4th. That these resolutions be published in our county papers and a copy of same be presented to the bereaved family.

Luck and Work.

There's a river called Luck, that runs through our lives, but her flood it is sluggish and slow; and the treasure, which by her false currents arrives, will never make very much slow. And the man who sits down by her treacherous shore, vain hoping his fortune to win, will wait till looks are frosty with hour, for her ship—it will never come in. But a far other stream is the river of Work—on her swelling and vigorous tide no place is reserved for the drone and the shirk—they must labor and die by her side. And the man who with confidence, boldness and quick embark on her affluent waters, will sail smoothly on and catch up with his "luck" by generous fortune careered.—Ex.

A New Thing.

The railroads which handle the business to Buffalo this summer will when the exposition there opens will they call coupon check books. These books will include everything from railroad fare down to smallest incidental expense. Each book contains a series of coupons which will be good at hotels for board bills, street car fares, hack hire and everything else that a person is required to pay when going sight seeing. The books are gotten out by an organization known as the Weekly Trip Company, which, of course, co-operates with the railroads. They are intended to prevent extortion so generally practiced upon sight seers.

J. W. Winters, an inmate of the Western Asylum for the Insane, attempted suicide by beating his head against a jelly with an iron bar which he worked loose from the window. When discovered in his room he had lost so much blood that it was with great difficulty that he was restored to consciousness. It is thought that he will recover. Winters is from Daviess county.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would know nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption and had that I walked a block I could go right through and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three 8.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 18 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, Laryngitis, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Paul's drugstore.

AGUINALDO TAKES OATH.

He Swears Allegiance to the Government of the United States.

Washington, April 2.—Secretary Root has just made public the following cablegram received at the War Department this morning at 8 o'clock:
"Manila.—Adjutant General, Washington: Since arrival at Manila Aguinaldo has been at Malacanang investigating conditions in the archipelago. He has relied almost entirely upon the instructive advice of Chief Justice Arzoblan. As a result today he subscribed and swore to the declaration on page 11 of my annual report."
MACARTHUR.

The oath referred to is as follows:

"I hereby renounce all allegiance to any and all so-called revolutionary governments in the Philippine Islands, and recognize and accept the supreme authority of the United States of America therein. I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to that government; that I will at all times conduct myself as a faithful and law-abiding citizen of the said island, and will, either directly or indirectly, hold correspondence with or give intelligence to any enemy of the United States, nor will I harbor or protect such enemy; that I impose upon myself these voluntary obligations without any mental reservations or purpose of evasion, so help me God."

Four asterisks in the cablegram mark a passage withheld from publication, about which the officials will say nothing now.

Notwithstanding the taking of the oath by Aguinaldo, who still will be held as a prisoner by Gen. MacArthur. It is possible he may be granted more liberty of action, but he will not be afforded complete freedom for the present. The action of Aguinaldo in taking the oath it is believed at the War Department will have a far-reaching effect in the pacification of the islands.

The Atlanta Constitution is right. Mr. Bryan brought no troubles on the Democratic party. The troubles of the party began when Mr. Cleveland deliberately reversed Democratic teachings and Democratic practices after his second election.—Owensboro Messenger.

The Constitution is right but the Messenger is not right. The Democratic party itself was at fault when it nominated Grover Cleveland in 1892 and elected him President. His views were known on the money question when he was nominated and he took no pains to conceal them. He was far from being a Democrat when he was nominated in 1892 as he was after he was elected President according to what the South and West considered Democracy, yet the South and West nominated him. The News was one of the few papers in Kentucky which bitterly fought his nomination in 1892, knowing then that his views on finance were those of Wall Street but we will do him the credit of saying that he took no pains to conceal them. Unlike a great many politicians he did not advocate one thing before the people and then when elected go just to the contrary. Mr. Cleveland has many sins to answer for to Democracy, from our standpoint, but double-dealing and deceit are not among them.—Elizabethtown News.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 608 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by M. Craven.

Missionary Institute.

The following is the program of the Missionary Institute to be held at Columbia, Ky., April 12 and 13th, 1901. It is the purpose of God to evangelize the world. If so, how?—C. B. Payne, T. L. Hulse and T. J. Campbell.
2. Are we as pastors and people fully awake to the importance of this work?—E. W. Holland, J. P. Vanhook and Willy Thomas.
3. How are we to beget a missionary conscience?—V. P. Thomas, James Woodbridge and A. Goodman.
4. Holy Spirit in Missions.—J. A. Johnson, P. H. Roe and J. H. Penney.

5. The "Holston Plan" is it a success should we adopt it?—J. A. Chandler, G. Y. Wilson and D. T. Tarter.
6. Has the missionary effort in China been worth while?—W. P. Gordon, S. P. Pope and R. M. Shemwell.
7. What progress has the Columbia District made in missionary work during the last four years?—J. L. Murrell, J. W. Watson, Joe Woodridge.

8. What is the relation of local preachers to missionary work?—J. E. Howell, G. B. Breeding, Dr. W. Bligham.

9. What can the laymen do?—C. T. Thompson, E. F. Winfree, B. H. Griest.

10. What work has women done for missions and what benefits has received?—Mrs. G. Y. Wilson, Mrs. Dr. Simpson.

Factors are urged to be present and bring their best hymns. Let all pray that the Holy Spirit may come upon us.

In the defense in the Powers case at Georgetown were engaged the ablest lawyers the prisoners could find. They badgered and bullied Judge Cantrell in an effort to provoke him into a questionable ruling. They took 847 exceptions to his rulings, and while keeping up a villainous and vicious attack through the organs of assassination on his personal character and judicial honor, yet the partisan majority of the Court of Appeals can only find in four of these 847 exceptions any possible basis for reversal. A strong minority opinion sustains the trial judge in all his rulings, and the outcome, viewed from any standpoint, cannot but be gratifying to Judge Cantrell and the friends who admire his character as a man and his ability as a Judge.—Louisville Times.

An American artist in Paris now enjoys the distinction of owning the most powerful and swift, yet automobile yet made. It was built especially for him and is of the same type as the famous auto named "Mercedes," which created such a stir two months ago at the Pau races. This machine is faster still, being capable of going ninety-eight miles an hour, it is claimed. This terrific pace is only feasible on good straight roads and cannot be maintained safely for more than ten minutes, as the machinery would tear apart. But the rate of seventy-five miles an hour may be sustained for half an hour and seventy miles indefinitely.

Almost Blind.

Mr. D. Kessing, Bannock, Ky., says: My little four year old girl's eyes were so weak from birth that she could not stand any light at all. Was treated by several physicians without benefit. My neighbors persuaded me to try Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron from Dr. O. Daugherty, Bannock, Ky. Three bottles not only restored her sight, but made her stronger and healthier than she ever was in her life. Sold by agent in every town.

Church Work in Kentucky.

The Central Presbyterian church of New York city, has in the line of its active and most commendable mission work sent a missionary (the Rev. James M. Walton) to the mountain section of Eastern Kentucky, where the mellow moonshine trickles from the stills, and the melodious crack of the Winchester makes music in the hills, or words to that effect, and his first experience on that unbalanced ground is calculated to make a man wonder whether he had better stay and try to remedy the evil or pack up and get out where it is everlastingly too late. In a letter, his very first, to his parent church, he writes as follows:

"We are boarding at Lewis' Hotel. They have promised to keep us till our conveniences (March 15), but evidently in their harvest, but if we fail in the meantime to make other arrangements we may induce them to stay on. We have been unable thus far to make arrangements about a house or room."

"You will be interested, perhaps, to know of really the first duty I performed in the capacity of my calling. We were busy in our room, and recovering from the effects of our four days' travel, when we were startled by an irregular succession of revolver shots. Looking out, I saw a crowd of men gathered. They seemed excited, and some bent over a prostrate form. I hurried out, and found a man with two large bullet holes in his skull, and his brains oozing out on the frozen ground. He was still living, but only semi-conscious. There was nothing I could do. The man was dead. The sheriff (three) were there with their shotguns in hand, fearing perhaps further trouble. They dismissed one man."

"I drank was at the bottom of the shooting. The man in question got drunk and began shooting into the ground. The law forbids shooting in town. The sheriff tried to arrest him. He fired on them, and they killed him. Drink!"

"He was carried in and laid on a bed in the 'Blue Hotel'—said to be the best house in Kentucky. I went there him a few minutes after, but he had passed away. The scene was pathetic in the extreme. About him stood three of his companions—drunk. I was asked, and closed the dead man's eyes, straightened him out, folded his hands over his breast and spread a dirty quilt over him—all the covering there was."

"I told the men I would like to pray with them, and around the bloodstained quilt we knelt. Whence arose, men were weeping and I had them changed to put in a word of warning and exhortation that I trust may be good seed in good ground."

"I expect to be initiated fully into my duties this week."

"We are happy in the work and prospect of being a blessing to the people."—New York Sun.

Frauds at Manila.

Manila, April 1.—The sensational frauds in the Commissary department, which were developed yesterday by the arrest of Capt. Frederick J. Barrows, of the Thirtieth volunteer infantry, Quartermaster of the Southern department of Luzon, together with seven Commissary Sergeants, several civilian clerks, a prominent Government contractor, the assistant manager of the Hotel Oriente, the proprietors of three of the largest bakeries in Manila and a number of storekeepers and other persons, will be probred to the bottom. Orders have been issued that no guilty man escape. The number of men implicated in the frauds is undetermined and high rank will not suffice to shield delinquents.

Col. Woodruff, the chief Commissary at Manila, said to the representative of the Associated Press that the irregularities were exaggerated and that the troops were always well supplied with stores. Colonels of the returning volunteer regiments wrote to Col. Woodruff in praise of the commissary service.

Lieut. Warren Dean, with thirty men of Troop G of the Sixth cavalry, was almost surrounded at Malabon by 30 insurgents from the Sanga mountains in Cavite province. During the ensuing action eighteen insurgents were killed and two Americans wounded. The insurgents then retired. No new announcements have been made concerning the situation.

Back From Cuba.

Washington, April 1.—Senator Proctor, of Vermont, has just returned from Cuba, where he has been making observations concerning conditions in the island. The Senator said he found a disposition among many leading Cubans to accept the terms of the Platt amendment as the most satisfactory solution of the relations between the United States and Cuba. There are some fire eaters, the Senator says, who assert that, rather than accept any interference by the United States, they will "take to the woods." This is Cuban for going to war. Senator Proctor says, however, that a great many people in the country districts, those who have been at war for many years, declare that they have had enough of the "woods." There is a disposition on the part of some, he says, to place a strained interpretation upon the Platt legislation, and they are trying to convince the Cubans that the United States intends to do them great injustice. According to Senator Proctor these are not making very much headway, especially, he says, as the delegates to the convention are now hearing from their constituents, the large proportion of whom are anxious for a settlement of all political relations with the United States, and urge the delegates to accept the offers of this Government.

Senator Proctor, speaking generally of conditions in Cuba, says that the business situation is much improved. American capital is now being invested, and this has been especially marked during the past three months. Various enterprises are on foot, there is employment for nearly everybody, and the quiet and peace that have come to the people are appreciated by them.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

We are authorized to announce F. T. COOLEY a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Adair County subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR JAILER.

We are authorized to announce JAMES H. JARRELL a candidate for Jailer of Adair County, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

St. Louis, like Chicago, in the Marquetry race went Democratic.

By reason of the prospects of an early peace in the Philippines the naval force on the Asiatic station will be reduced.

The test the constitutionality of the Indiana law disfranchising voters that will their votes, an agreed case has been made up at Rockport and appealed to the Supreme Court.

Carter Harrison was elected Mayor of Chicago by a plurality of nearly thirty thousand. He is now being boomed as the next Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

Capt. Ed. Pelley, of Danville, is being favorably mentioned by the Republicans of the 18th district as their candidate for the State Senate.

There is a move on foot to consolidate Central College and Central University, Richmond; and have the one institution at Danville. The proposition is meeting with favor outside of Richmond.

A proclamation of peace in the Philippines is expected in June. Aguinaldo is preparing his manifesto calling an end to the war. It is said that he is anxious to visit the United States.

Five robbers blew open a safe in a bank at Chardon, O., and got away after clubbing the watchman. They secured less than $200 in money. Two of the men were arrested at Willoughby, O., and are in jail.

The recent elections show that the people are against monopolies and combines whether political or otherwise. You can fool 'em some, of course, but the American people can not be hoodwinked for a century.

The Democratic capture of Teddy's home precinct and Hanna's home city is of greater worth to the country than Funston's kidnapping Aguinaldo. The former means good government at home while the latter means carpet-bag government abroad.

Down in Hancock county the people are sprouting wings. The grand jury adjourned last Saturday after being in session one week. Only one indictment was found and that was against a man for whipping his male.

There was a brutal and cowardly assassination in Louisville last week. Without warning and while patrolling his beat, Corporal Richert was shot dead. A policeman named Hanlon is charged with the crime, and there is but little doubt of his guilt.

A large vote was polled in the Ohio Municipal elections last Tuesday. The Democrats carried Cleveland by over 6,000 majority; also Columbus, Springfield and Toledo. The Democrats are getting together all over the country, determined to down the enemy of the common people.

"Oh, Mr. Johnson! turn me loose."—Mark Hanna.

The post-office at Louisville has crossed the $500,000 line in the way of yearly receipts. The salary of the postmaster will be raised from $4,000 to $5,000 a year and the office will have all the facilities for delivering mail that the larger cities have.

Throughout the country, North, South, East and West the returns in the various city elections are good enough for Democrats. Roosevelt's home precinct went Democratic by 145, the first time since Columbus "discovered" America. Tom Johnson was elected Mayor of Cleveland by 6,000. This is the home of Hanna and indicates that the tide has turned.

The friends of Hon. G. G. Gilbert, Congressman from the Eighth District, were greatly alarmed over his condition last week. He had an attack of appendicitis and was conveyed to St. Joseph's Infirmary, Louisville. The consulting physician had not resorted to the knife up to last Saturday, and an operation may not be necessary.

Gen. John B. Castleman and Walter Forrester, who was Assistant Adjutant General under Governor Bradley, and a well-known newspaper writer, had a little knock down in Louisville last week. Gen. Castleman was the aggressor, and as we read of the account, got the worst end of the fight. Both parties struck blows, but neither one hurt. The trouble grew out of a report Forrester made to Bradley concerning the First Kentucky of which Castleman was the Colonel.

The administration has once more revived the story that the Sultan of Turkey is about to pay those long-standing American missionary claims. Decency ought to keep the administration quiet until they are paid. It has been bamboozled by the Sultan to an extent that has made this government the laughing stock of the diplomatic world.

Gen. Cassius M. Clay was not wounded in last Friday's fight at "White Hall." A committee will likely be appointed to take charge of the old General's property and have him confined where he can do no harm. He is 91 years old, vicious as a lion, and evidently undiminished. Last Friday the sheriff and a posse of Madison county went to his premises to serve a writ upon him, but with guns, several shots being fired, the old man drove them off.

Five young men, society swells of Bowling Green, have evidently damaged the reputations of five girls, belonging to wealthy families, who were attending Potter College, a female institution known throughout the South. The scholars board in a building adjoining the college and occupy the second floor. The girls in question had evidently arranged with five young men to go buggy riding at a late hour on Saturday night. The young men reached the building about 12 or 1 o'clock, raised a ladder to the window of the girls and four had descended to the ground before Prof. Cabell discovered that something was wrong. He went out and was horrified to find four girls with the young men. He ordered the intruders to leave, and instantly a number of shots were fired, the teacher engaging in the shooting. The whole affair was turned over to the grand jury and the young men indicted and the president of the school is now trying to secure their release. Better let them wait their first "duck supper."

We admire the courage of Gen. Funston and trust that our government will place him higher, but we also admire the courage of Aguinaldo in his struggle to establish Philippine independence. He was entitled to all he asked would have received it had it not been for the inordinate greed of a few Americans. Aguinaldo fought for the liberty of his country, for the principles that our forefathers fought, while our own country was fighting for spoils. No other construction can be placed on this unhappy affair, and while the close of hostilities seems to be almost in sight, yet the cost has been tremendous. The many prisoners of war, the many people

Day Spring, 492.

Day Spring is standard bred and registered. He is a beautiful black, 16 hands high, fine style good smooth limbs, has fine action and is in every respect a combined horse. Tennessee—Day Spring by King Denmark, he by Star Denmark, he by Jones' Denmark, he by Old Black Denmark the 4 mile race horse, and he by Imported Hedgesford, thoroughbred. First dam by Lexington, 2nd dam by Steel Dust, 3rd dam by Morgan, 4th dam by Stump. It is readily seen that Day Spring is superior breed and as a sire he has proven himself a wonderful breeder, imparting to his offspring size, form and action, the three essentials of a good animal. He is bred to saddle and to drive; he does both in an attractive manner and a large per cent of his colts do likewise. Day Spring will make the season at my stable 15 miles from Columbia on this appointment Creek for the small sum of $7.00 to insure a living colt.

My Jack, TELEPHONE, will serve mares at same place for $3.00 on same terms as horse. Telephone is 14 hands high, 4 years old and I believe will prove a great breeder.

ious lives of young American manhood, the new made mounds that dot our country, the and hearts of mothers and fathers can alone tell of the great cost of securing the Philippines, of taking from others by force. The American people did not demand this; it was the action of a few menbacked by a party of politicians and investors. The soldier, however, has our sympathy, discharging his duty well; but many young men joined the army without seriously considering the cause or the dangers attending such a conflict. The desire to see the world or the ambition to achieve fame were great incentives to lure thousands of young men from the peaceful pursuits of their homes. Many of them sleep the sleep that knows no waking and yet the greed of the bondholder continues to sound the tocsin of war.

GRADYVILLE.

Robt. McCaffrey and Phil Shirell, of Columbia, were here last week.

J. J. Hunter and W. M. Wilmore are in Louisville this week buying goods.

Mrs. J. J. Hunter and Miss Lula Allen spent a day or so in Columbia last week.

A. B. Wilmore spent Saturday night and Sunday at Edmonston.

E. H. Hughes, of Columbia, attended church at Union Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Flowers has been on the sick list for a few days.

H. A. Walker was in Greensburg the first of the week shipping tobacco to the Louisville market.

Mr. Henry Hurt, of Columbia, passed through our place last week en route for Glasgow.

Our tobacco man, J. D. Walker, is now receiving a nice lot of tobacco.

Mr. W. W. Yates has returned from Metcalfe county where he has been looking after sheep for several days.

Dr. L. C. Nell bought J. J. Hunter's entire stock of drugs last week.

A. Hann passed through here last week with a nice bunch of fat cows that he bought in Metcalfe county at 3 cts. per lb. also a young horse at $65.

Mr. S. A. Harper is taking the census of our school districts. He informed us that we would have a scholarship of about 130.

Smith & Nell returned from Metcalfe county last week with 120 bags which they purchased at 50c per pound.

Squire Kemp bought last week of Smith & Nell one young cow for $25.

Messrs. Willie Hill and Jo Yates have been awarded the medal as crukole players, defeating the champions, J. A. Diddle and E. L. Caldwell.

Mrs. Sallie Wilmore entertained quite a number of ladies in this community last week by giving an old time carpet tacking.

Dr. Ben Taylor, of East Fork, was called to see Mrs. J. A. Wilmore one day last week who has been in a critical condition for several days.

Mr. D. J. Schöling, the well-known insurance man of Columbia, passed through here one day last week enroute for Mr. Taylor Robinson's near the Metcalfe line, to adjust the damage by fire on his residence.

Mr. Lee Shufft, an up-to-date farmer of Metcalfe community, was here one day last week and informed us that everything was moving a long nicely in his section. He had as usual plenty of corn, bacon and flour, and if we town people had the money he would furnish all we needed.

Miss Harris and Smith, accompanied by Messrs. John Murrell and Robert Young, of Columbia, attended church at Union last Sunday. Bro. Sandidge gave an interesting lecture to a large audience on Easter Sunday.

Miss Sallie Diddle entertained quite a number of the young people one evening last week. Those present were Misses Carrie and Josie Caldwell, of Portland, Annie and Dollie Dohoney, of Milltown, Messrs. W. C. and G. B. Yates, Garfield Flowers and C. C. Hindman. The evening was delightfully spent and will long be remembered by the society people.

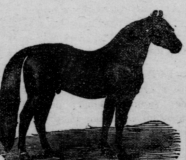

It is useless to say that our town is not improving for it is only a question of a little time until we will have a new and commodious building erected, that will be fitted with drugs and owned and controlled by Dr. L. C. Nell.

We understand that the lumber is being prepared for a large building and when completed will be used for a rolling mill, owned and controlled by Mr. Strong Hill. We only say success to the new enterprise.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H., "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for many years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by T. E. Paull.
